PARENT TIPS

HEADS UP!

Notice that when Jane is feeling sad, Oracle tells her to look up. Why?

Because when you look down you dwell on your thoughts and feelings. \(Find out more here.\)

Kids Comments

"I really liked the Jake and Jane book, and the advice...[about] self-esteem. This was the best day ever. You rock!" – 12-year-old-girl from Bates Middle School, Annapolis, MD

BOOK REVIEW

Switch on the Night by Ray Bradbury

A lonely boy's fear of the night is transformed when a mysterious little girl (named "Dark") shows him the beauty hidden within the night. A simple book with lyrical language dealing with complex emotions. \(Find out more here.\)

INSPIRE OTHERS: Take the Challenge!

Raves

"Learning to build on the confidence we ALL have inside is so important, particularly at a young age. What a great book to help children develop a healthy sense of themselves."
